

MAKI/CROSSING

Female Student Travel Award 2019

For the participation at one of six conferences: Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing • WE • Ditact • Informatica Feminale • Ingenieurinnen-Sommeruni • Ada Lovelace Festival.

With this award, the collaborative research centers MAKI (<http://www.maki.tu-darmstadt.de>) and CROSSING (<http://www.crossing.tu-darmstadt.de>) appreciate exceptionally well performances of female students in electrical engineering and information technology. The winners will be able to attend one of the listed conferences and thus offered an insight into science as well as networking opportunities.

The following conferences are available

- The "Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing" (2.–4.10.2019 in Orlando, Florida) is the world's largest gathering of women technologists.
- The "WE" (7.–9.11.2019 in Anaheim, California) is the world's largest conference and career fair for women in engineering and technology.
- The "Ditact" (19.–30.8. 2019 in Salzburg, Austria) are summer studies for women in IT.
- The "Informatica Feminale" (12.–30.8. 2019 in Bremen) is an international summer university in informatics.
- The "Ingenieurinnen-Sommeruni" (12.–30.8. 2019 in Bremen) is an international summer university and offers teachings in electrical engineering and mechanical engineering.
- The "Ada Lovelace Festival" (time and place tbd) is an event that brings together women from computer science and tech and celebrates diversity.
